safe and snug,

Good, then I'll begin...

Once upon a time in the Night Garden, it was time for the Tombliboos to clean their teeth.

"Tombliboo!"

said the Tombliboos,
picking up their toothbrushes.

Ombliboo, Tombliboo,
I can clean my teeth like you.
Tombliboos form a line, scrub your teeth and make them shine!

"Tombliboo!"
"Tombliboo!"

Take your toothbrush, open wide,
up and down and side to side.

Round the back and underneath,
that's the way we clean our teeth.

I can clean my teeth like you,
ombli-bombli-Tombliboo!

What lovely, clean
Tombliboo teeth!

"Tombliboo!"

Have you got lovely, clean teeth too?

The Tombliboos put their toothbrushes back neatly.
Then they went outside.
